

NOTICE TO PLAYERS ADDENDUM CODE OF CONDUCT

All UJGA members MUST adhere to the Code of Conduct guidelines. Violation will result in tournament penalties and/or disqualification. Repeated violations could result in membership suspension.

Specific Violations Include:

- a) Lack of respect to the scorer or tournament officials
- b) Failure to abide by the Rules of Golf or a decision by an official
- c) Damage to golf course property
- d) Throwing clubs
- e) Abusive language
- f) Use of tobacco, alcohol or drugs during play (unless medically prescribed)
- g) Poor sportsmanship conduct or behavior in general

1) The TOURNAMENT COMMITTEE may assess a penalty of disqualification if a specific violation is committed.

2) Violations that the TOURNAMENT COMMITTEE deem a "serious breach" of the Code of Conduct:

- A. Failure to turn in a score card at the conclusion of a stipulated round.
- B. Serious Damage to the golf course as described above.

PENALTY: The player is allowed to participate in his/her next tournament, is eligible for awards but is not eligible for PPR points. Automatic suspension of membership, disqualification from the players next tournament (not allowed to play) and loss of entry fee for the penalized tournament.

3) Violations that the EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE deem a "serious breach" of the Code of Conduct:

- A) Use of tobacco, alcohol or drugs during play unless medically prescribed (second violation)
- B) Failure to turn in a score card at the conclusion of a stipulated round (second violation)
- C) Discontinuing play and walking off the golf course before the conclusion of a stipulated round
- D) Cheating or purposely not abiding by the Rules of Golf

PENALTY:

- 3.1: Automatic suspension of membership and disqualification from all remaining UJGA sanctioned tournaments until his/her membership is reinstated with a minimum suspension of one-tournament (NOTE: If the next tournament is a National Qualifying event the player will be able to participate but is not eligible to receive PPR Participation points at the qualifying or national event / Performance points at the qualifying or national event / Qualifying points for the national event if the player qualifies). The suspension of tournaments the player will miss begins with the next event he has entered that is not a national qualifying tournament.
- 3.2: Loss of entry fees for events that the player is ineligible to participate in.
- 3.3: Player will be ineligible for PPR Qualifying and Performance points at the national or state championships that the player may have qualified for prior to the violation.
- 3.4: Not eligible for Invitational tournaments or a Utah TEAM.
- 3.5: Not eligible for post season awards.

IF ANY VIOLATION of the Code of Conduct is determined to be a serious breach by the Executive Committee, the committee may recommend suspension of membership and the length of that suspension. A request for reinstatement must be handwritten and submitted to the Executive Committee Chair (UJGA President) from the suspended player and his/her parents or guardian.
